

Chemical Intermediate: Epoxy Curing Agent – Product Portfolio

| APPLICATION        | PRODUCT | BENEFITS                               |                           |   |               |                         |                   |   |   |
|--------------------|---------|--|---------------------------|---|---------------|-------------------------|-------------------|---|---|
| Epoxy curing agent |         | Improved solubility in organic solvent | Enhanced flame retardancy | Flame retardancy especially in halogen free systems | Reduced color | Good adhesion to metals | Formaldehyde Free |   |   |
|                    |         | •                                      | Durite™ SD-1708           | •   |               |                         |                   |   |   |
|                    |         | •                                      | Durite™ SD-1731           | •   |               |                         |                   |   |   |
|                    |         | •                                      | Durite™ SD-1817           |   | •             | •                       | •                 | • |   |
|                    |         | •                                      | Durite™ SD-357B           | •   | •             |                         |                   |   | • |

All products provide:

- Increased peel strength
- High temperature stability

For additional information about our product line please contact your Bakelite representative